

Obituaries of John Moore and Lovicy Petty Moore

John Moore

Carolina Spartan: 27 July 1881; Died 22 July 1881

Mr. John Moore died at his residence near Gaffney last Friday, and he was buried Saturday, Rev. W. L. Brown officiating at the funeral. He began life with the century, being born in February 1800; consequently he was in his 82nd year. For many weeks he had been an invalid and in his last days suffered severely. He was the well known court crier in our county for a long period and for the last fifty years his voice has been familiar to all of our citizens. Thus has passed away another of our old men.

Mrs. John Moore (Lovicy Petty Moore)

Carolina Spartan: 19 October 1881; Died 14 October 1881

Mrs. John Moore died at her residence near Gaffney's last Friday, after a long and painful illness. He lived to an advanced age having gone considerably beyond the allotted three score and ten years. For a half century or more she has been a faithful member of the church at Providence.